DINNER TIME QUESTION

Have you ever prayed to become a Christian?

When? What was it like?

DINNER TIME QUESTION

This Easter, what are ways we can praise Jesus for beating death and giving us new life in him?

DINNER TIME QUESTION

Have you ever wondered if you messed up too big or too many times to be forgiven? Why did you feel that way?

DINNER TIME QUESTION

What are some things we can do to remember the sacrifice Jesus made?

DINNER TIME QUESTION

What are some ways
you can remember
Jesus' love this week?

Hand Prayers

You'll need paper, markers, scissors, tape/glue

- Have everyone trace their hands on a piece of paper and cut them out. Glue the 2 hands together like they are praying.
- On one hand write, "Dear God, today I feel..."
- On the other hand write, "Thank you for loving me whenever I feel this way."
- Have everyone share how they are feeling and pray for one another.

PRESCHOOL ACTIVITY

Cut out a cross from a piece of paper.

Write Matthew 7:7 “Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” on the back of the cross.

Take turns hiding the cross around your house, and have the rest of the family race to find it. Whoever finds the cross first, must read the verse on the back as loud as they can. That person then gets to hide the cross, and the game continues.

Let this be a reminder that God promises eternal life to those who seek him.

PRAYER PROMPTS

WITH YOUR KIDS

Dear God, thank you for making me to feel all different ways. Thank you for loving me when I'm sad, happy, scared, and excited. Remind me that my family loves me when I feel all those things too. Help me remember to talk to my parents about how I'm feeling.

FOR YOUR KIDS

God, You know my heart and every feeling I carry. When I am tired, overwhelmed, or unsure, remind me that You are patient and gentle with me. Help me to pause, breathe, and respond to my children with the same love and grace You show me each day.
